Use of Foundation Names, Trademarks, and Materials

Membership in the Foundation is not and does not imply an endorsement, approval, or sponsorship by the Foundation of any Member, its business or other activities, or its products or services, and a Member shall not represent otherwise in any way whatsoever. The Foundation is the owner of all rights in the name "New York Wine & Grape Foundation" ("the Foundation Name") and the trademark BOLDLY, NY. ("the Foundation Mark"). A current Member of the Foundation in good standing may state that it is a "Member of the New York Wine & Grape Foundation" and may use the Foundation Mark solely to indicate its membership in the Foundation, promote public awareness of wine, grape products, and grapes grown and processed in New York State, and promote recreation and tourism in the winemaking and grape growing regions of New York State, provided that (1) use of the Foundation Name or Foundation Mark satisfies the requirements of the current Foundation Style Guide at www.newyorkwines.org, is not misleading or misrepresentative of the geographic or commercial origin of Member's products or services, and complies with all applicable legal requirements for producing, labeling, advertising, and marketing the same, and (2) the Member promptly provides the Foundation with representative samples of its use of the Foundation Name and Foundation Mark for review and approval, currently holds all licenses and permits required for its business and activities, and complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances. Except as expressly permitted above or in a writing signed by the Foundation, no Member may use the Foundation Name, the Foundation Mark, or any other name, trademark, slogan, logo, image, domain name, social media handle, or copyrighted work of the Foundation.

The New York Wine & Grape Foundation promotes New York wines, grape juice, and table grapes, and sponsors research to enhance quality, productivity, and social responsibility.
